

Football Officiating Intro Clinic

- This is a one-day clinic for anybody that wants to learn more about football officiating. The clinic is designed for men and women with zero officiating experience. Anybody who has an interest in the game of football and would like to become more involved in the sport and their community are encouraged to attend. All are welcome!
- The clinic will cover what it's like to be an official, some NFHS (high school) football rules, officials' positioning and mechanics, and more.
- Attendees will be shown how to apply to the PIAA to take the certification test online if they choose to do so. Test preparation will be covered.

Cost: Free! Snacks / coffee / donuts provided.
