

ThingLink

Creating interactive images

<http://www.thinglink.com>

Using ThingLink

- ThingLink allows you to use an image, from the web or from your computer and add links and information. You add information by inserting dots (called tags) on the image that will show viewers the content and a link to more information.
- You will want to plan out the image you wish to use and the content/links that you want to combine.

The image shows a screenshot of the ThingLink website. At the top, the URL is www.thinglink.com. The navigation menu includes "LEARN MORE", "PLANS & PRICING", "LOG IN", and a blue "SIGN UP" button. A yellow arrow points to this button. Below the navigation is the main heading "ThingLink Tabs for Facebook" with the subtext "Easily create an Interactive Facebook Page with an Image". Below this is a preview of a Facebook page for "ThingLink" with the title "What is ThingLink?". The page features a "Timeline" section for the year 2011 and a large image of a head with a globe inside, surrounded by birds and lines. To the right of the preview is a blue "Start here" button, followed by three bullet points: "Create an engaging Page experience", "Feature music, art, videos and e-commerce", and "Promote your business". A "Learn more >" link is at the bottom right.

The dashboard is the first screen you'll see

The main content area features three large buttons for adding images: "Upload images from your hard drive", "Add from Flickr recent public images", and "Add from web with URL address". Below these buttons is a link to "Install Thinglink on your Site".

A "Statistics" section is visible, showing a play button icon and a table of statistics:

Views	Hovers	Clicks
1	5	1

Embeds	Views	Hovers	Clicks
1	4	46	2

Below this table is a promotional message: "Upgrade now to Thinglink Plus just for $5.00 to see your tag-specific statistics!".
